

El Guabo

La Campesina is a cooperative of small cocoa producers in Matiguás, Nicaragua, with more than 500 members in 37 communities. It promotes organic and sustainable production with a focus on the inclusion of women and youth, managing more than 1,500 certified hectares and exporting high-quality cocoa. Nearly 100 women producers actively participate in training and value-added programs.

El Guabo, In high availability, this cocoa adds new flavors on the Nicaraguan cocoa map; hoppy taste of a triple trappist beer with soft dried cranberry notes that has a smooth honey-like chocolaty end. A very balanced profile with the aroma of almond oils.
