

Paso Cocodrilo / Ayin

Ayin has very thin long-shaped beans and despite their small size long processing is required to bring a chocolate profile that comes with balanced fig and rhubarb jam notes with pleasant tobacco smokiness.

Ayin means lagarto in Q'eqchi', Paso Cocodrilo it's the farm's name, located in the Alta Verapaz department, owned by Erick Ac and family. Situated on the western edge of Laguna Lachua National Park, the Finca Paso cocodrilo currently covers 50ha and is expanding.
